1977 BLUEBOOK

VOLUME XXVII

*Published by the Bluebook Staff
Hooker High School
Hooker, Oklahoma*

Reflections . . .

The pictures in this book are reflections of teachers, classes, events, fads, friends, and of YOU. It is the wish of the editor that when you look at the 1977 BLUEBOOK, you will be able to reflect back on the 1976-77 school year and remember special events, good times, and friendships that will last a lifetime.

Of course, these pictures are just an instant captured on film. It is up to you to bring these pictures back to life and remember the special times you had in Hooker High School.

Perhaps later you can reflect back and see that high school was only a beginning of your education. Whether you go on to college or directly into employment or marriage after graduation, you will still learn more and more about yourself and others as time passes. Yes, high school is just a beginning - but from it, there will be memories and friends that you cherish a lifetime.

LOWER RIGHT: T. Thompson received words of praise from a well-wisher.

Students Honored For Achievement

The top 10% of the students in junior high and senior high are named to the Oklahoma State Honor Society each year, which is an honor students take great pride in. Most of the students are active in many activities at HHS.

The Masonic Lodge honors two outstanding junior and senior high students each year with the Student of Today Awards. They are chosen on the basis of academic ability, leadership, and character. Receiving the coveted plaques this year were Anita Ukens and Blake Baird and Ellen Witt and Scotty Goosen.

Sponsored by the American Legion, Susan Skillings and Anita Ukens attended Girls' State while Keith Ukens, Shawn Kilgore, Ricky Pickard, Kelly Hill, and Blake Baird attended Oklahoma Boys' State. They learned about government, how various government offices work, and met many of the state leaders.

TOP: Attending Girls' and Boys' State were: S. Kilgore, R. Pickard, K. Hill, S. Skillings, B. Baird, A. Ukens.

Lundgrin, K. Hoeme, M. Ebenole, K. Sarchet, K. Remling, J. Sarchet, R. Hamm, L. Flynt, R. Thompson, and A. Ukens.

Outstanding Students Were Named

Each year five junior high and five senior high students are chosen to represent the "Who's Who" at HHS. Being selected to "Who's Who" is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed on a student at HHS. Students first are selected scholastically by being taken from the honor roll. They are also rated on their willingness and attitude by their sponsors, teachers, and coaches.

Seniors Honored For "Sky High" Spirit

To be chosen as "Miss Flame" and "Miss Spirit" means keeping your spirit "sky high" win or lose. Anita Ukens was selected as "Miss Flame" at the football banquet and lighted the traditional bonfire on main street. The day of the basketball banquet the pep club voted by secret ballot and chose Tammy McKinley as "Miss Spirit."

Both Anita and Tammy are 1976-77 pep club officers and deserve a lot of credit for having the best pep club around!

RIGHT: Pep club secretary-treasurer, Tammy McKinley, chosen as "Miss Spirit" lived up to her title as she hung posters in the hall before a big game. LOWER RIGHT: Acknowledging the theme of the football banquet, "Burn Their Buns," pep club president, Anita Ukens, chosen as "Miss Flame" set fire to a Boise City Wildcat. BELOW: Tammy McKinley and Anita Ukens selected as "Miss Spirit" and "Miss Flame" sat together at the officers table during the football banquet.

Vocational Students Were Outstanding

Miss Kay Witt was crowned FFA Sweetheart at the Parent-Member banquet and represented the Hooker Chapter in Oklahoma City in the State Sweetheart contest. She provided refreshments at FFA meetings, as well as passing out trophies and ribbons at local and Guymon fairs.

Selected as Outstanding Future Homemaker of America "Girl of the Year" was Anita Ukens, senior. Serving as president of the local chapter, she provided good leadership, set a good example for others, and was active in many other activities.

Hooker was well represented in the PSU scholastic contests in April. From the home ec department, Kathy Remling and Ellen Witt tied for second in Foods I, while Kim Rapp was second in Foods II. In Clothing I, Marie Taylor ranked third while Linda Mires was fifth and Kristal Hoerne rated fifth.

In Typing I, Kay Witt placed third with Suann Kopel fifth, while Stanley Witt also was fifth in Beginning Woodworking.

TOP: Kay Witt was a busy, dedicated, involved FFA Sweetheart.

CENTER: Anita Ukens was selected "Outstanding FHA Member" by her fellow FHA members this year.

BELOW: E. Witt, K. Rapp, K. Remling, L. Mires, K. Hoerne, M. Taylor, S. Kopel, K. Witt, and S. Witt were outstanding scholastic competition for HHS.

Honor Escorts And Ushers Were Chosen

Kay Witt and Jeff Sarchet, juniors with the highest grade point average, were named honor escorts for both baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Three junior boys and three junior girls were chosen by the senior class as ushers for graduation. They passed out programs, and ushered parents and friends to their seats. They were also partially responsible for decorating the stage.

TOP: K. Witt and J. Sarchet served as honor escorts for the class of '77 at graduation ceremonies.

BOTTOM: Honored by the senior class by being chosen ushers were D. Mitchell, K. Hill, L. Hofferber, G. Chambers, D. Gilmore, and L. Flynt (not pictured).

Top Seniors Had High Grades

After four long, hard years of listening to lectures, taking notes, writing themes, and taking tests, it was determined that Janell Reece, valedictorian, and Susanne Trent, salutatorian, were the two top students of the HHS Class of '77.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reece, Janell is an active member of the United Methodist Church. Throughout high school, she maintained a 3.94 grade-point average.

A member of the First Baptist Church, Susanne's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Trent. During her high school years, she maintained a grade point average of 3.87. Her high school activities included chorus, track, basketball, band, mixed chorus, FHA, and sports editor of the "Bulldog Echoes."

TOP: J. Reece was chosen valedictorian for the graduating class of 1977.

Organizations And Activities

TOP LEFT: S. Hendrickson did well in the local show. Mr. Myers was always around to offer advice.

TOP RIGHT: What better place to do posters and banners than the middle of the hall, huh, Kay and Sue?

CENTER: Mr. Longest offered words of encouragement and spirit at a pep rally preceding the regional tournament.

LOWER LEFT: R. Russell was involved in many shows and contests for FFA.

LOWER RIGHT: Who's got Who??? Petra - or Lupe?

CENTER: N. Steinle made sure she was heard.

CENTER RIGHT: T. Thompson really told it like it was.

TOP RIGHT: J. Campbell, M. Lundgrin, K. Rapp, and N. Steinle presented a special dance at the jamboree.

LOWER LEFT: S. Lyles, D. Haddock, J. Eggleston, and T. Grounds worked on the class banner in the gym.

LOWER RIGHT: How lucky can you get, Tony?

Student Council Sponsored Student Exchange

RIGHT: Mr. Max Caldwell, counselor, worked with the student council as advisor for their projects. CENTER: Heading the student council were officers: J. Herbel, J. Steinke, K. Peterson, and D. Dorsch. BOTTOM: Student council members were J. Herbel, R. Fischer, B. Dorsch, M. Hairford, R. Hamm, D. Dorsch, J. Steinke, R. McBee, B. Fischer, B. Phillips, T. Rapp, L. Goodwin, D. Thorne, K. Peterson, K. Hoeme, and D. Thompson.

The Student Council met in the Jefferson Street house for the first time this year. This will be their official meeting place from now on. They took care of the coke machine along with buying new records for the stereo. The Junior High took part in a Student Council exchange with Guymon. Mr. Caldwell helped organize these activities.

FCA Was A Time Of Sharing

The purpose of FCA is to confront athletes and coaches and through them, the youth of the nation - with the challenge and adventure of following Christ and serving Him through the fellowship of the church and in their vocations.

The meetings give one an opportunity to share with others. It is also a time of growing and learning about God's word.

TOP: Even Mei Ling, Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick's Pekinese, got in on the action along with C. Fischer, T. Grounds, B. Uken, K. Kilgore, and M. Hairford at an FCA meeting.

CENTER: FCA officers S. Kilgore, K. Steinle, G. Chambers, K. Hill, K. Uken, K. Peterson, A. Uken, L. Hofferber, and D. Mitchell found relaxing with a coke fun anytime.

LOWER LEFT: FCA members were: K. Kilgore, S. Hamm, M. Hairford, K. Steinle, T. Mikles, J. Sarchet, S. Kilgore, B. Uken, K. Uken, R. Thompson, D. Mouser, T. Thompson, S. Lyles, N. Steinle, L. BELOW: Admiring their newly-acquired van, along with Coach Allen, were Coach and Mrs. Hedrick, all FCA sponsors.

"Bulldog Echoes" Required Dedication

Hours of after-school work went with the job of being editor, as well as make-up typists, in order to produce each edition of the "Bulldog Echoes," a bi-monthly HHS publication. Editor, Anita Ukens, along with Susan Skillings and Kim Rapp, were dedicated, responsible workers all year.

Following the editing, counting lines, typing, running off on the mimeograph - came putting together, stapling, and passing out.

TOP RIGHT: Anita Ukens, along with her many other duties as editor, was responsible for seeing that each student and teacher received a copy of each edition. RIGHT "Echoes" staff members were. A. Ukens, S. Skillings, L. Hofferber, S. Trent, B. Clark, S. Williams, T. Caldwell, K. Rapp, M. A. Lundgrin, D. Hanson, and C. Hess. LOWER LEFT: Spending many hours at the typewriter typing copy and stencils were K. Rapp and S. Skillings. LOWER RIGHT: Mrs. Lucille Burdge and Miss Shelley Kopplitz were pleased with the new light table in the publications room.

Many Students Involved as Aids

TOP LEFT: Students working as grade school aids were: H. Rogers, T. Hembree, T. Smith, S. Hobbs, E. Phillips, B. Uken, K. Brown, C. Hess, J. Boyles, J. Headrick, A. Sebastian, T. Boyles, T. McKinley, S. Gibson, L. Weber, J. North, L. Hofferber, K. Hill, A. Smith, D. Haddock, B. Clark, A. Burns, R. Kennedy, and C. Raff. CENTER: Keeping busy in Mr. Longest's office were K. Kilgore and R. Thompson. LOWER LEFT: High school aids were: S. Long, K. Steidle, C. Grounds, M. Caldwell, J. Hershey, T. Highbarger, R. Thompson, P. Hidalgo, P. Moore, S. Skillings, A. Uken, R. Snider, V. Stapp, S. Kopel, K. Kilgore, T. Gibson, A. Smith, J. Hess, R. Thompson, D. Bragg, G. Bowen, K. Musman, N. Decker, B. Crouch, C. Rottamel, S. Williams, D. Moore, S. Selmon, K. Rapp, S. Trent, R. Bowen, T. Roybal, B. Baird, J. Hill, B. Clark, G. Hurst, K. Holland, A. Beet, J. Lamas, S. Hendrickson, D. Depuy, and T. Elkins. BELOW: Mr. Caldwell, Student advisor, spent many hours perfecting and enlarging the student aid program.

Night Of Jamboree Was Wild And Wonderful

TOP RIGHT: T. Allen, B. Longest, J. Baird, and M. Cook discovered that counting votes for the Bluebook kings and queens was time consuming.

ABOVE: K. Kilgore offered T. Thompson lots of support as she hung balloons for the cake walk.

CENTER: Mike Hanson spent a lot of time and money on the junior's basketball throw.

CENTER RIGHT: K. Sarchet offered several suggestions from atop her perch while decorating the freshman booth.

LOWER LEFT: J. Eggleston adjusted the net over the archery shoot.

LOWER RIGHT: Staff members J. Steinke and J. Headrick lined up prizes for the senior class's bingo stand.

Petra Enjoyed American Classmates

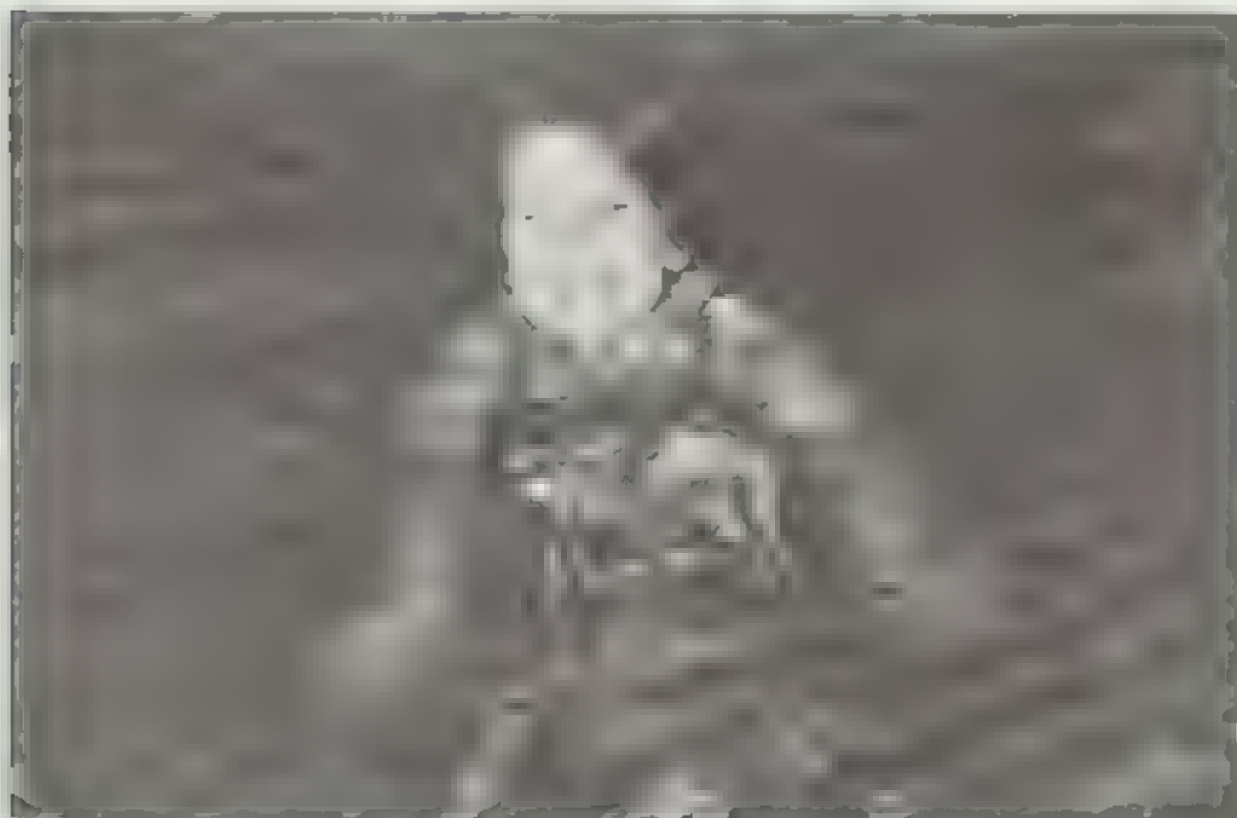

The Youth for Understanding sponsors foreign exchange students, and, as a result, this year Hooker was one of the lucky recipients. Petra Schlachter from Fallingbommel, Germany, enrolled as a junior here at HHS, with her host family being Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fischer. She soon discovered that Americans were a little different in their customs. Having never seen a football game before, when she saw the first Big Blue game, she used the American term, "Wow, that freaks me out." After a year here, Petra listed as her favorites - pizza huts, football, the National Anthem and "Lupe."

TOP LEFT: Petra discovered that her locker was big enough to hold most anything.

LOWER RIGHT: Enrolled in art, Petra loved all phases of her art class.

ABOVE Members of the active FHA group were: K. Witt, E. Witt, L. Lyles, D. Haddock, M. Taylor, J. Eggleston, D. Thorne, K. Rapp, T. Boyles, K. Schroeder, K. Hoeme, S. Skillings, N. Decker, K. Gibson, A. Sebastian, A. Ukens, S. Lyles, S. Trent, N. Rawlins, T. McKinley, T. Ewert, T. Caldwell, R. Kennedy, N. Steinle, V. Stapp, M. Smith, S. Selman, J. Crist, D. Friesen, D. Thompson, J. Headrick, K. Sarchet, K. Hoobler, R. Thompson, K. Pickard, A. Smith, G. Hurst, L. Fowler, E. Hunter, D. Roybal, L. Mills, R. Snider, and S. Hershhey. RIGHT: Mrs. Anita Witt, advisor, proffers FUNDS-A-POPPIN' popcorn to Chapter Mothers, Mrs. Ron Thompson and Mrs. Loren Rapp. LOWER LEFT: Ah! Ah! Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Thompson were caught sampling the refreshments. LOWER RIGHT: K. Hoeme and K. Witt compared scores on the FHA point chart to see if they might get to make the coveted trip to Oklahoma City.

FHA Had Many Projects

Popcorn, knives, and light bulbs were the selling projects of FHA for this year. In order to earn enough points to get to attend the state convention in Oklahoma City, a member had to sell these articles, attend meetings, present programs, and help to provide refreshments at meetings. Included in their activities were visiting Dunaway Manor, attending a sub-district rally at Turpin, and helping with the Cystic Fibrosis and Muscular Dystrophy drives.

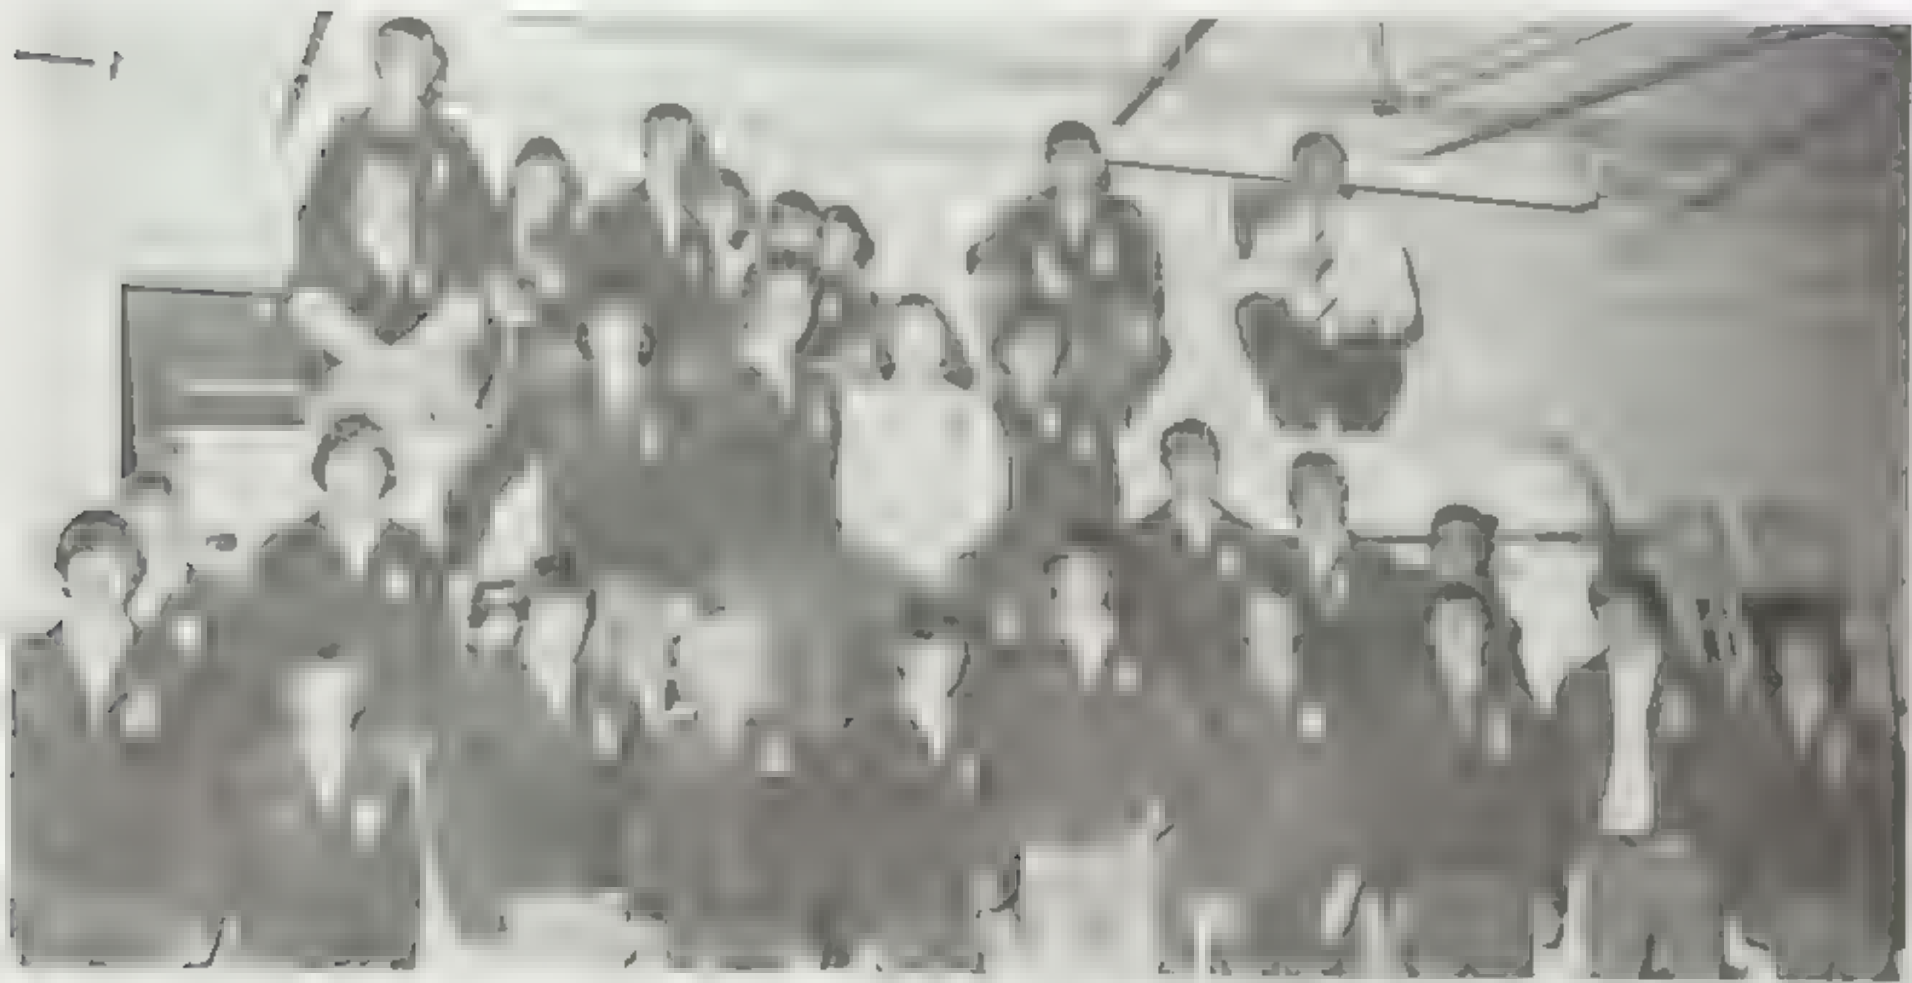

Outstanding programs included: How to Repot a Plant, Baby Care, Candle Making, and a program on how to make flowers from crepe paper. Each girl was given a chance to try her talents along this line.

In a special election, President Anita Ukens was voted as the FHA GIRL OF THE YEAR.

TOP: The 1976-1977 FHA officers were K. Witt, S. Skillings, R. Snider, A. Ukens, K. Hoeme, T. Mundy, S. Selman, K. Rapp, and T. Boyles. LEFT: One of the best parts about FHA was refreshment time.

FFA Boasted Two State Farmers

ABOVE: That's quite a load! The FFA members for 1976-77 were: S. Hamm, J. Crawford, C. Longest, J. Eggleston, J. Herbel, L. Flynt, R. Hamm, D. Moore, R. Pickard, M. Burdge, T. Hamm, R. Russell, A. Thrall, K. Hill, FFA Sweetheart, K. Witt, J. Sarchet, C. Grounds, J. Brooks, J. Hill, L. Bookless, M. Hanson, M. Friesen, Mike Hanson, G. McNabb, J. Boyles, S. Hendrickson, G. Birkley, and advisor Carl Myers.

RIGHT: Officers of the Hooker FFA Chapter for 1976-77 were: R. Pickard, vice-president; L. Flynt, secretary; K. Hill, president; R. Hamm, sentinel; J. Sarchet, treasurer; and R. Russell, reporter.

The Hooker Chapter of the Future Farmers of America were outstanding in their projects this year. The "Aggies" participated in the Liberal, Pueblo, and Guymon fairs. They also entered the Denver, local, Guymon, Woodward, and Oklahoma City Stock Shows. Individuals placing high in these events were: Ricky Pickard, Kelly Hill, Janet Eggleston, Chris Longest, Jeff Sarchet, Larry Flynt, Rodney Hamm, Mike Hanson, Mark Hanson, and Darrell Moore.

Kay Witt was Chapter Sweetheart - a job involving much responsibility.

UPPER LEFT: Smiles and trophies were what several FFA members brought home from contests. J. Herbel, T. Hamm, M. Friesen, J. Boyles, A. Thrall, L. Flynt, R. Hamm, K. Hill, J. Sarchet, and J. Eggleston displayed their trophies.

LOWER LEFT R. Pickard and K. Hill were honored by being named "State Farmers" of Oklahoma.

Pep Club Was Eager and Spirited

Wherever the Bulldog teams went, the HHS Pep Club was close behind, adding spirit and the all-important enthusiasm. Making signs to break through, decorating for the banquets, making the queen homecoming floats, and filling lockers with "goodies" were merely a few of the pep club activities to show their strong support.

President Anita Ukens, vice-president Connie Judd, and secretary Tammy McKinley strived to keep the pep club discussions under control, while Mrs. Florence Flanagan, Miss Shelley Kopnitz, Mrs. ArVel White, Mrs. Therese Hofferber, Mrs. Marki Payne, and Mrs. Laurel Caldwell helped to sponsor the out-of-town trips.

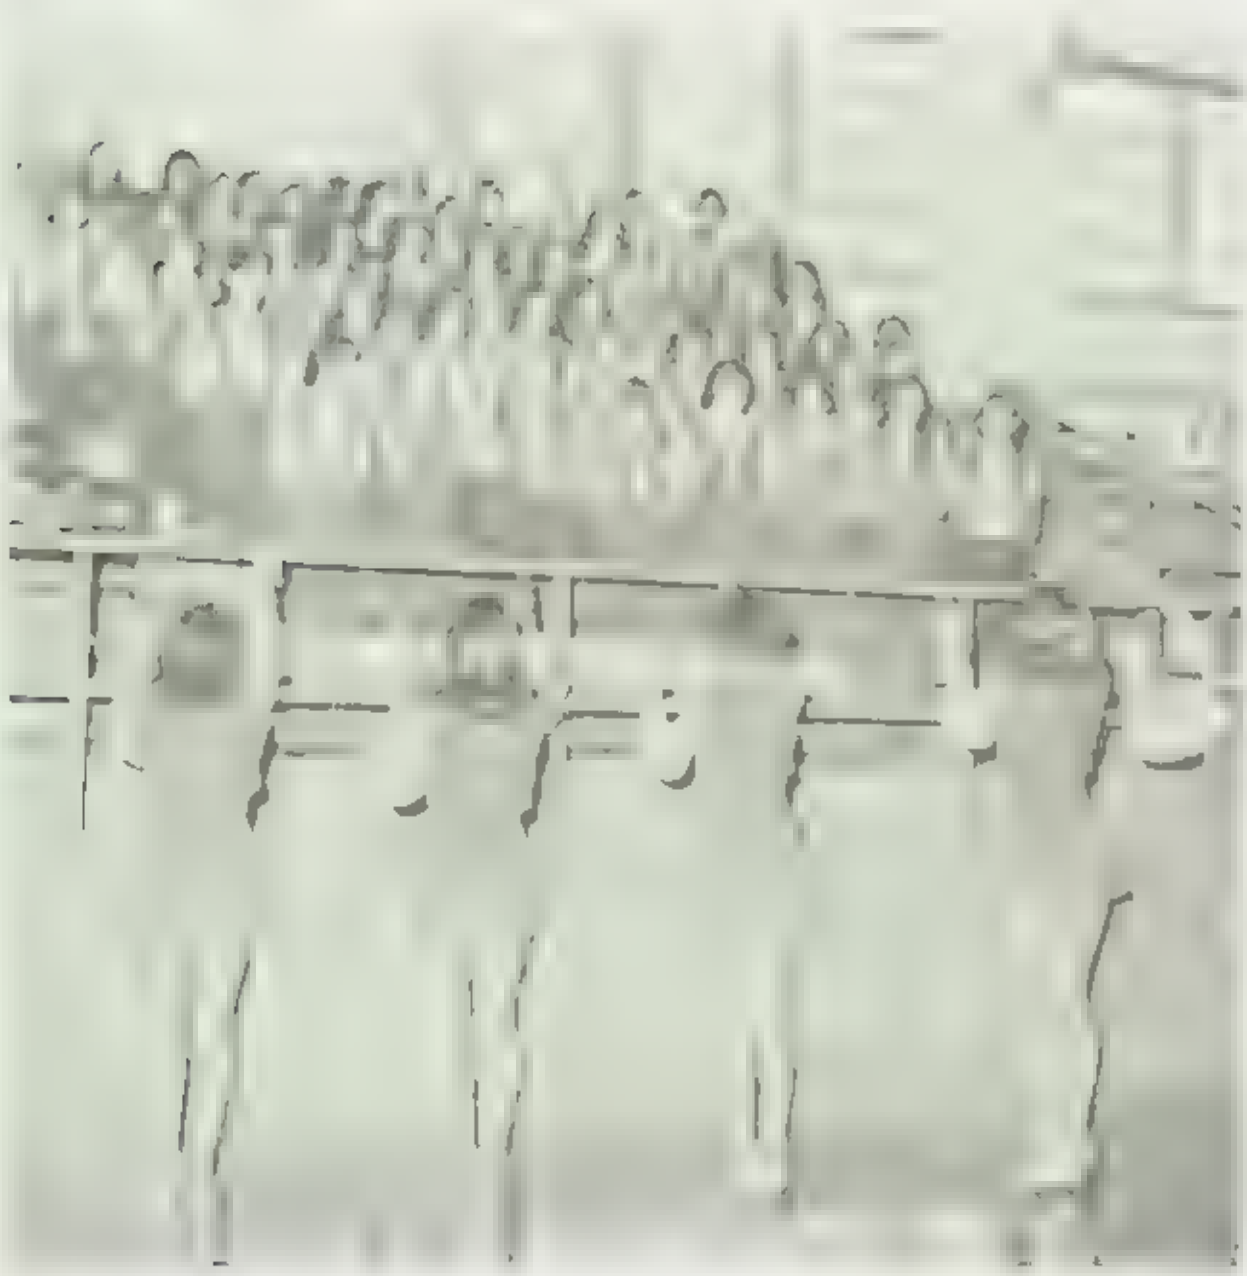

BELOW The 1977 HHS Pep Club members were: L. Mills, T. Caldwell, K. Hoo- bler, G. Schoonover, L. Mires, B. Clark, J. Crist, N. Steinle, R. Garcia, K. Rem- ling, A. Sebastian, K. Sarchet, K. Pick- ard, D. Thompson, K. Gibson, E. Witt, L. Weber, A. Burns, N. Rawlins, J. Hess, S. Lyles, M. Taylor, T. Grounds, D. Thorne, L. Lyles, C. Fisher, D. Had- dock, A. Beer, T. Thompson, K. Hill, J. Campbell, and S. Hershey. TOP M and T. Thompson. Like by other schools, HHS Pep Club was outstanding in spirit, attitude, and appearance. LOWER RIGHT: The bus became the pep club's home-away-from-home when travelling to games played during the sea-

Jr. Hi Pep Club Cheered Teams

The Hooker Junior High Pep Club was full of enthusiasm and pep when they yelled and cheered to bring encouragement to the Bullpup teams. Under the guidance of president Julie Eggleston, vice-president Tylee Roberts and secretary Debra Skillings, the pep club followed the junior high football team to Guymon and Boise City and, of course, all the home games. They were unable to make any out-of-town trips during basketball season because most of the girls were involved in basketball themselves. Many games were also scheduled on nights the high school teams were playing in away games.

TOP: Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Burdge, junior high pep club sponsors, found time between games to admire the new microwave oven in the home ec. cottage.

CENTER: The junior high pep club girls backed their football team all the way.

BELOW: The backbone of the junior high pep club were cheerleaders J. Witt, J. Hill, L. Baird, K. Caldwell, T. Rapp, V. Ortiz, and D. Witt.

LOWER RIGHT: Ready for basketball season to get under way were: R. Trimpe, L. Schoonover, D. Young, G. Burns, T. Behne, L. Yeager, D. Skillings, C. Ward, P. Trent, L. Hill, J. Eggleston, C. Brown, L. Krug, J. Witt, T. Rapp, J. Hill, D. Witt, K. Caldwell, V. Ortiz, L. Baird, J. Gibler, C. Garcia, J. Wyer, D. Purcell, L. Goodwin, T. Roberts, and T. Billingsley.

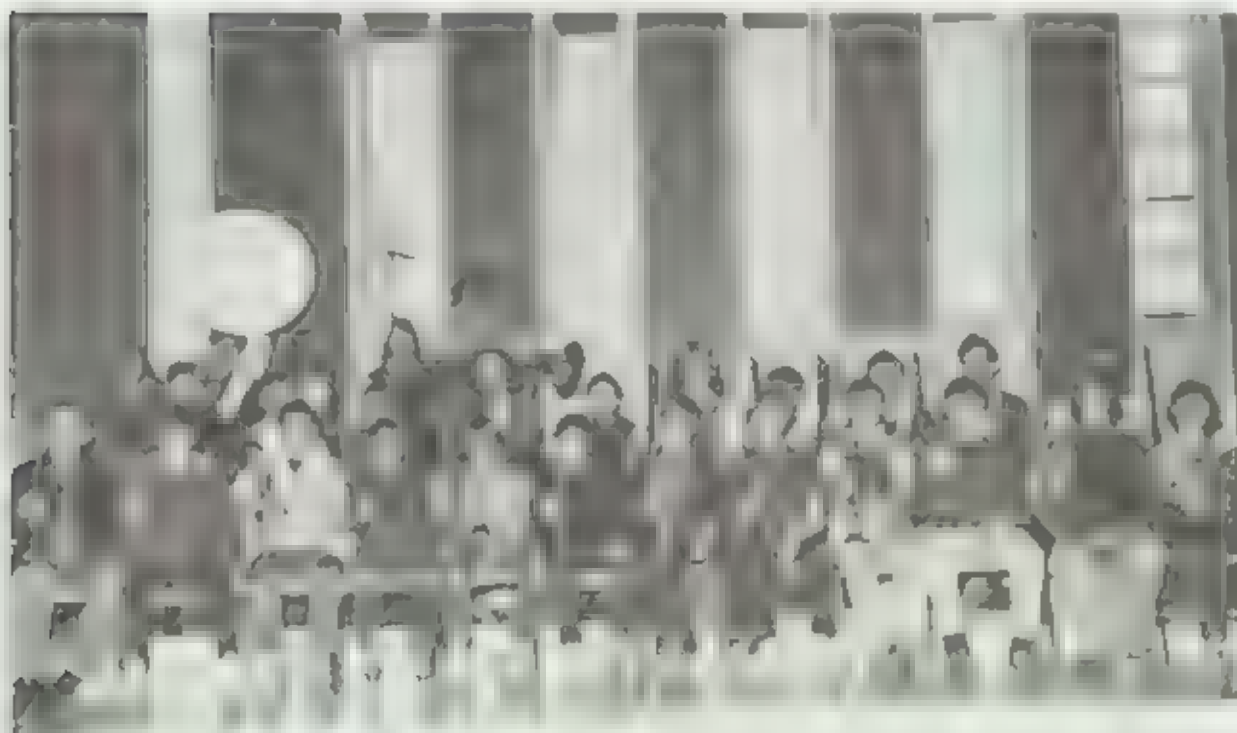

JH Band Had New Experiences

First hour seemed to come awfully early, especially to struggle getting instruments out of their cases and trying to make beautiful music, but the members of the senior high band were dedicated enough to try just that. Under the direction of Mr. Bob Stout, the marching band performed at halftimes of all the home football games. Sue Hershey led the band on the field as Drum Major while Mary Ann Lundgrin, Suann Kopel, Tammie Thompson, and Debbie Thompson were twirlers. The band also added spirited music to pep assemblies and the stage band was responsible for the music at the BLUEBOOK Jamboree.

Girls Chorus Rated Superior

As each school day slowly wound down, seventh hour would find approximately eighty girls making their way to the music department to tune up and blend their voices together to make music. Most of the girls were usually worn out from a hectic day of school spirit but, still they worked hard, and the hard work paid off when the girls received a Superior at District contest.

With basketball season continuing as the boys kept winning, time was short and precious for the few days the chorus could meet and work on their contest pieces "Alleluia" and "Top of the Hill."

After the chorus finished practicing, the different ensembles would scatter into different rooms to practice their songs. The freshmen took "No Hiding Place" to contest; the sophomores, "Sunrise"; the juniors worked hard on their song "Moving On"; while the seniors sang, "The World Is Yours." Receiving a Superior were the juniors while the rest of the ensembles received excellent ratings at District contest. The Chorus headed for State and, for the first time in some years, the trip was made without any boys.

Headrick, T. Merritt, T. Bode, D. Hanson, D. Goosen, and L. Longest discovered that putting on a puppet show for the grade school was a rewarding experience.

This year's drama class, under the direction of Therese Hofferber, took part in many exciting activities. The students wrote their own scripts and made puppets for their elementary puppet show. They also entertained the elementary students by having a storytelling hour. The students wrote and recorded their own soap operas. Throughout the year several students participated in speech contests. One of their last projects was giving one act plays. They included "Save Me a Place at Forest Lawn" and "Apartment to Share." Student director Brenda Clark helped Therese Hofferber as director.

This past year art students were involved with perspective, still life, figure, and detail drawings in pencil, charcoal, pastel, and pen and ink. Other projects included printmaking, batik, painting, pottery, sculpture, copper enameling, and latch hook rugs. Later in the Spring Art I and Art II students had an exhibition of their work which had been done during the past school year.

Juniors Presented "Pillow Talk"

Jan Morrow, a successful young interior decorator, was forced to share a party line with Brad Allen who, very frequently, phoned one of his many female friends. Desperate to use the phone one day, Jan interrupted one of his conversations. Brad was furious at what he considered an unwarranted interference. Through a friend and the connivance of Jan's maid, Brad finally met Jan. He passed himself off as a naive young Texan named Rex Stetson, and Jan was entranced. Brad's dual identity as both the Texan and the cynical commentator or Jan's increasingly important love for the gentle and trustworthy Rex results in some uproarious comedy, and then a delightful reversal when Brad discovers that he's in love too.

Senior Production Was Hair-Raising

Wilbur Maxwell (K. Brown) and Hercules Nelson (J. Steinke) spent the wildest weekend of their lives in the senior play, "Finders Creepers." They were all set for a great weekend at Herc's uncle's home, until they discovered he was a mortician. The boys were terrified when the "dead" Mr. Quigley climbed into bed with Hercules. Mr. Quigley, (B. Baird) enlisted the aid of the two boys in finding out who had tried to murder him.

Fans Delighted By Fast Action

Hooker basketball fans were delighted by the quick action and exciting basketball demonstrated by the HHS varsity boys team. By using the full court press, the 'dogs were able to set up numerous fast breaks. Coach Hale said of the team, "We have had a fine group of young men with good athletic ability; that's why we were 21-4 and 21-6 the last two years." The team wrapped up second place in the PSU tourney, second in the Beaver tournament, first in District 1A, first in Regional and made it to the Area Finals.

Seniors Blake Baird, Keith Ukens, Kenneth Steinle, along with junior Tim Highberger, and Max Caldwell, sophomore, made both All-Conference and All-Area. They were also selected as players for the Oklahoma Panhandle All-Stars.

Varsity Girls Win District

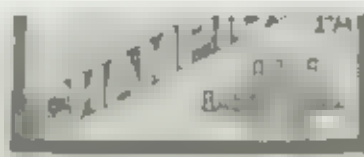

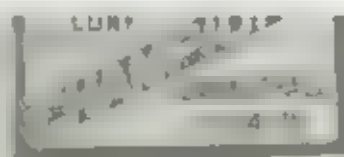

The freshman girls, coached by Terry Hale, ended their round ball season with a 3-6 record. Standouts on the team were: Norma Steinle, Ellen Witt, Nancy Rawlins, Terry Caldwell, Rachel Garcia, and Kathy Schroeder.

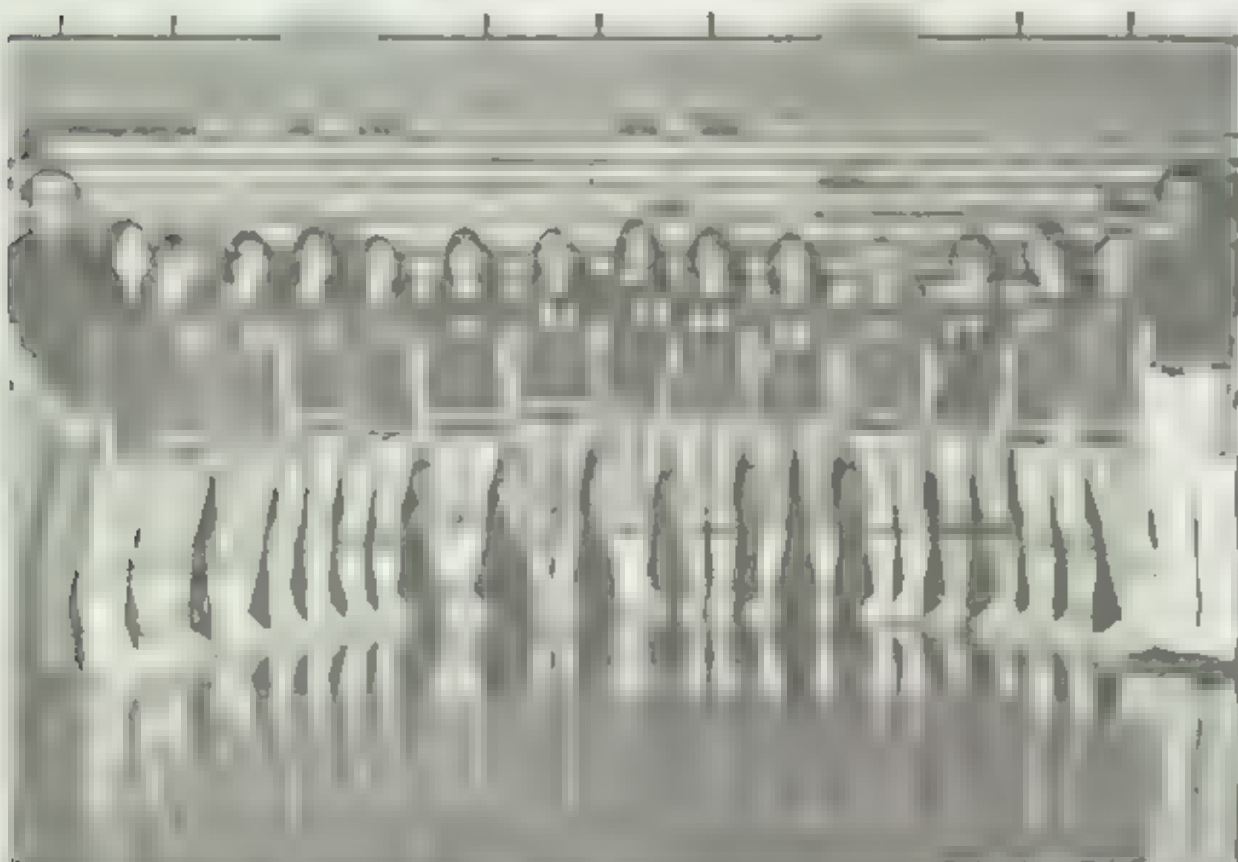

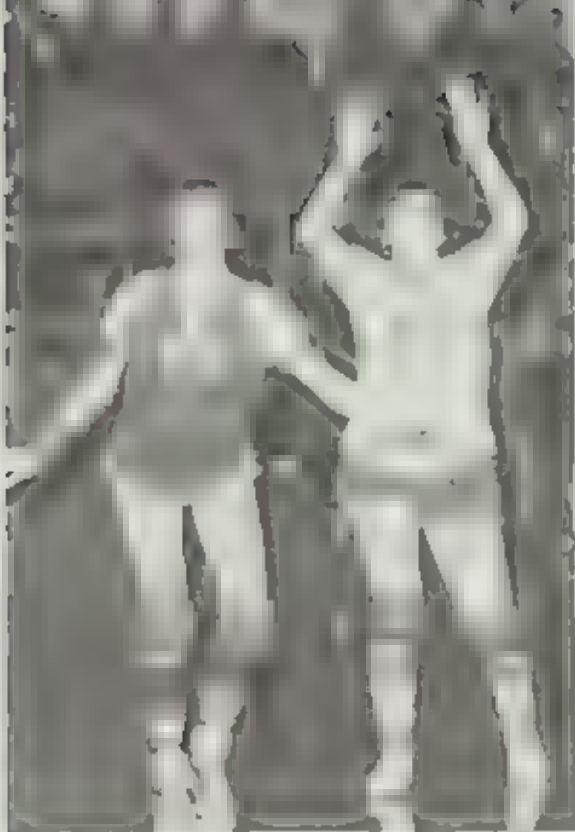

The Junior Varsity Squad ended their season with 9 wins and 3 losses falling only to Guymon and Beaver. They also brought home the 1st place trophy from the Boise City "B" team tournament.

The varsity girls, under Mike Cook, got off to a slow start, but by the end of the season, the three-year-old team had become quite competitive. All season long their goal was to win District. And win they did! Two thrillers, a 44-41 win over Turpin and a one-point victory over Boise City allowed them to advance to the Regionals.

"Weekend at the Movies" was the theme of this year's swim show. Marki Payne had reason to be very proud of her Blue Starrina Swim Club. "Live and Let Die" was the opening song in which all the members participated. Soloist senior, Janie Headrick, did a routine to "Evergreen." "Gonna Fly Now," "Do You Know Where You're Going To," and "Inspector Couseau" were three of the songs on the script. "Jaws" was the closing song of the show. Decorations included letters in the windows spelling "movies," posters of the different movies, Mrs. Payne's director's chair, studio B and C on doors, and posters of film strips. Voted outstanding student by her fellow swim team members was Janie Headrick. Spending many hours in the pool were BLUE STARRINA SWIM CLUB MEMBERS: T. Rapp, V. Stapp, D. Young, K. Caldwell, J. Headrick, J. Gibler, N. Rawlins, Coach Marki Payne, K. Pickard, K. Sarchet, K. Remling, A. Sebastian, J. Crist, L. Baird, P. Trent, J. Eggleston, T. Roberts, L. Goodwin, and V. Ortiz.

K. Ukens Was Proclaimed A Superstar

Although Keith Ukens, the Superstar himself, was a superb athlete in basketball and football, his main bag was track which he proved this year by scoring every point for Hooker's track team. In just five meets, Keith placed in every event that he entered by wrapping up nine first places, four second place finishes, and one fourth place. Newspapers called him "Hooker's One Man Track Team." An unfortunate home accident which resulted in a brain concussion prevented Keith from participation in the Regional Track Meet which dashed his and his coach's hopes for a state title.

Girls Competed In Many Meets

Coach Mike Cook coached nine high school girls in track this year. Senior Susanne Trent, Nancy Rawlins, Cindy Rotramel, Kristal Hoeme, Lisa Lyles and Karla Hoobler all were qualifiers in various events.

The junior high girls, with Coach Marki Payne, enjoyed a successful season. They participated in the meets at Rolla, Guymon, Ulysses, and Conference. Debbie Witt placed first in the long and high jump at Guymon and also first at Beaver in the high jump. At conference Lisa Goodwin, Cheryl Brown, Tia Behne, Veronica Ortiz and Tylee Roberts won or placed in many events.

Shawn Qualified For State Tourney

With Shelley Koppitz as their coach, the girls' golf team, consisting of Tanya Boyles, Sue Hershey, Beverly Clark, and Anita Ukens, stuck it out through dirt storms, rain cancellations, and discouraging hooks and slices. Even though it was more of a learning rather than a competitive class, the girls met Guymon in two matches.

The boys' teams, with outstanding members Shawn Kilgore, Leslie Longest, Gary Bowen, Arlen Meng, Keith Kilgore, Randy Bowen, and Brent Goodwin, attended seven meets this spring. They proved that playing on the home course was an advantage by taking first in Hooker's meet. Shawn Kilgore qualified for State at regional.

Junior High Tracksters Were Competitive

BELOW: Coach Terry Allen and Coach Kelly Pulliam spent many hours working with the track teams.

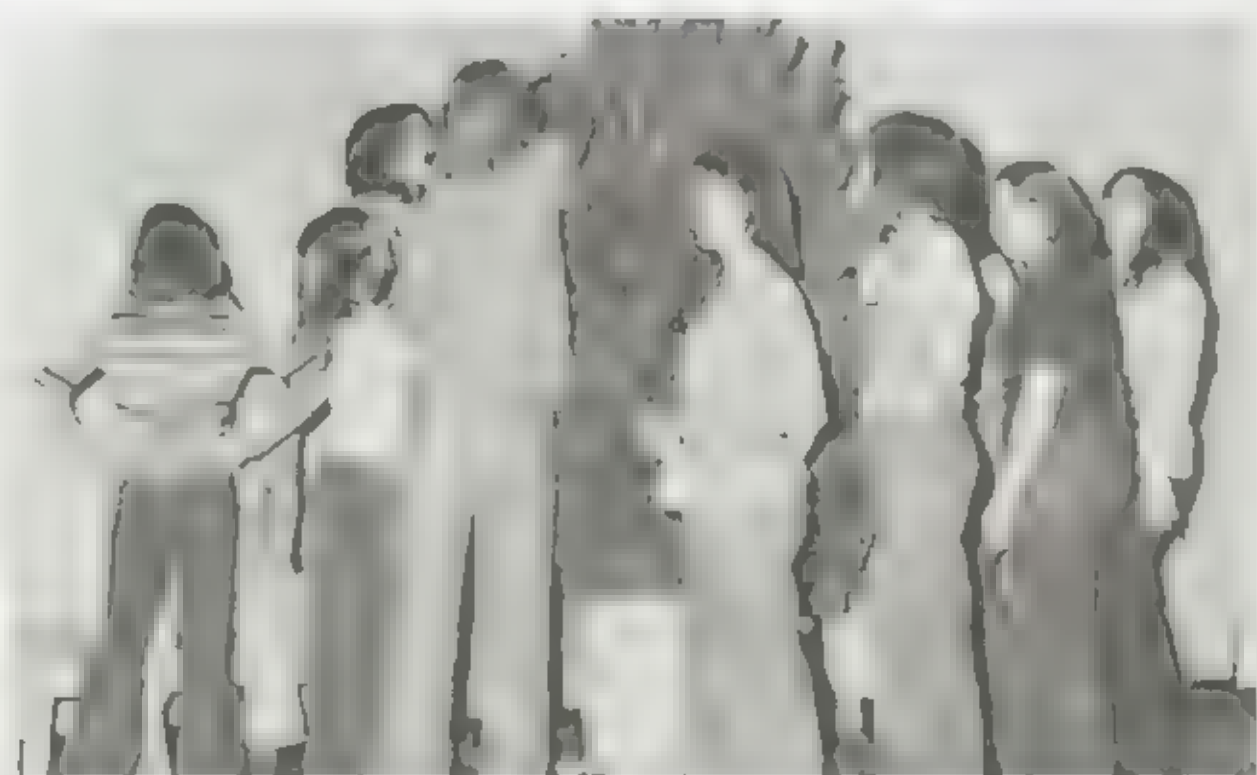

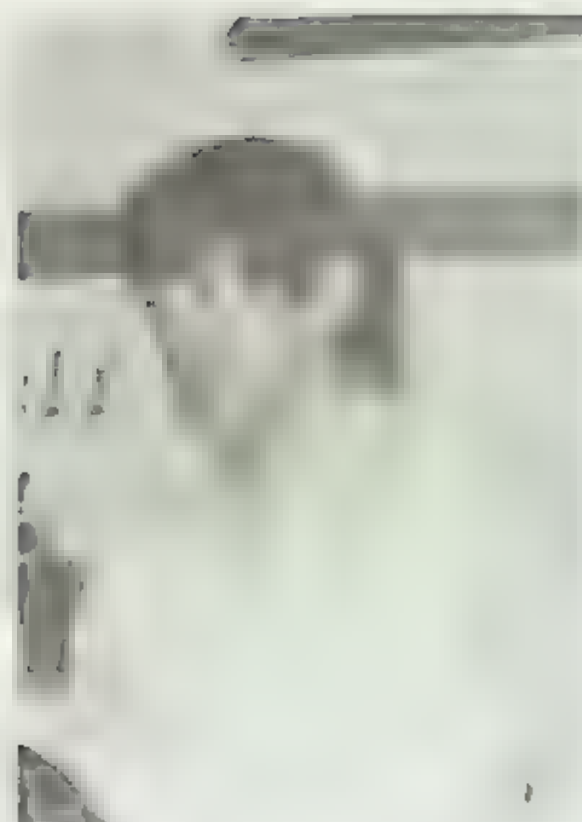

Led by Kelly Pulliam, the junior high track team had a successful year. Ronnie Roybal placed in the top three in the pole vault in every meet. Placing well all season in the shot put were Fred Elkins and Damon Herbel. F. Elkins and Doyle Headrick did a good job in the discus. The eighth grade 440 relay placed at Guymon and Elkhart. The team competed at meets in Dalhart, Beaver, Guymon, Hugoton, and Elkhart.

Seniors Reached Long Awaited Goal

The seniors were involved in and led in almost every activity. This was the long awaited year which for students included having senior pictures taken, ordering announcements, presenting the senior play, being measured for caps and gowns. They set up a benefit to buy a tape player for Connie Judd who was seriously injured in a car accident.

The senior football cheerleaders, who were kept busy with spirit projects all season, were: Tami Ewert, Janie Headrick, and Tanya Boyles.

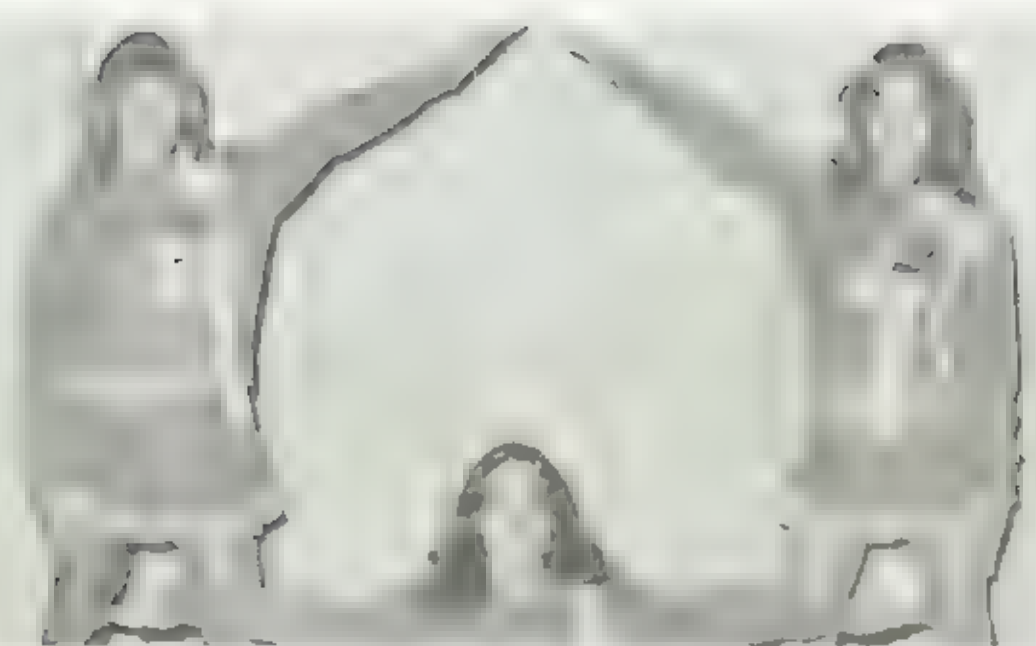

President Anita Ukens, Vice-President Connie Judd, and Secretary Tammy McKinley guided the HHS Pep Club through two banquets and many games.

Sue Hershey, Sherri Thorne, and Kay Peterson helped to steer the girls basketball to their first District championship. Shawn Kilgore, Blake Baird, Kenneth Steinle, Rick Thompson, Keith Ukens, Kevin Haddock, and Leslie Longest led the boys to a District championship the same night and then went on to bring home the regional trophy. Hooker seniors were represented well at the All-Conference game with Sue Hershey serving as an alternate and Keith Ukens, Blake Baird, and Kenneth Steinle representing the boys. Helping to keep up the spirit during the basketball season were Kim Rapp, Jill Campbell, and Sue Hershey.

ABOVE: Connie Judd, severely injured in a one-car accident in February, attended the HHS homecoming activities escorted by fiancé Robby Brixey. Happy to see Connie again were senior classmates T. '77 Class Song

So long my friend,
I guess it's time to move along
We've had our good times,
You know we've played a lot of songs.
We've had our ups and downs
With every single thing
we've done.
We've been discouraged,
but still we've had a lot of fun.

And I will always remember all the times we had,
Through all the tears and all the times of being glad,

So just be happy.
That's all that matters,
anyway
And keep on trying - You'll get just what you want someday.
'Cause wherever you go,
And every single thing
you do,
Through your lifetime
I'll always be a part of you.
So long, so long, my friends.

Although small (39 members strong) the juniors led a hectic life with students involved in almost every activity possible.

"Pillow Talk" starring Kristal Hoeme and Rodney Hamm proved to be a successful play. Many long hours of deciding a theme, ordering supplies, planning decorations, and finally the decorating itself kept the class and sponsors very busy. Also because of their small size, the juniors held a car wash and a bake sale to raise money for the banquet.

The junior class selected denim blue and gold as their class colors, "When Will I See You Again" as their song, "Cherish yesterday, dream for tomorrow and live for today" as their class motto, and the yellow daisy for the class flower.

Freshmen Joined Activities

Being classified as both junior high and senior high school students, the freshmen often felt as though they had a "lost identity." By the end of the school year, however, the freshmen proved that they were truly a part of high school as they had joined many school activities. Debbie Thompson was selected as football homecoming queen candidate while Ellen Witt was the freshmen's choice for the basketball homecoming queen. The freshmen worked hard in the cork gun shoot and cane rack booths at the Bluebook Jamboree and supported their candidates Mike Hanson and Rachel Garcia.

Norma Steinle, Kelly Pickard, Debbie Thompson, and Karen Gibson were on the BLUEBOOK staff, while reporting the 7th and 8th grade news for the "Bulldog Echoes" was Terry Caldwell.

The freshmen have a bright future in athletics with players such as Linda Mires, Jeff Hill, Norma Steinle, Billy Phillips, and Stan Hamm. Linda was a starting varsity guard and was also named as an All-Conference guard.

James Herbel, Terry Hamm, and Darrel Moore were outstanding in Vo. Ag.

Filling two high school cheerleader positions were Kathy Remling and Norma Steinle while Debbie Thompson was a high school band twirler.

Kathy Remling did well in band receiving a 1 on her saxophone solo and she was also in a trio that received a superior.

The freshmen proved their academic excellence with Stan Hamm, Norma Steinle, Kathy Remling, Kim Sarchet, and Ellen Witt listed on the Superintendent's Honor Roll and 20 other students listed on the Principal's Honor Roll. Ellen Witt also received the junior high girls Student of Today award.

BELOW- Involved in molding clay for pottery in art were C. Raff, T. Elkins, and A. Burns.

Eighth Were Junior High Leaders

The eighth graders had an exciting, fun year. The eighth graders were leaders in the junior high. Tamara Rapp served as president of junior high band. Julie Eggleston served as drum majorette and president of the junior high pep club.

The eighth grade cheerleaders were Tamara Rapp, Jana Hill, Lori Baird, Kerry Caldwell, and Debbie Witt. Included in their class activities were the dissecting of cow's eyeballs and lamb's hearts in science, skating, and going to a movie. Scotty Goosen was presented with the Student of Today award.

School Personnel Essential

Sandra Hedrick, the efficient always-willing secretary to Mr. Goodwin, was never too busy to be of assistance to students, as well as faculty. Her ready smile and pleasant personality were popular with all.

Money, Money, Money! Mrs. Doris Flynt sometimes seemed to be deluged with cash, purchase orders, checks, and all of the problems resulting from having or not having money. She took care of all monies for classes and school organizations.

TOP RIGHT: Sandra Hedrick was kept busy typing purchase orders, memos to teachers, and correspondence for Mr. Goodwin. LOWER RIGHT: Sandra Hedrick demonstrated to Doris Flynt the brand new copy machine purchased by the school this year. BELOW: Mrs. Doris Flynt, the Hooker School Treasurer, spent many hours counting money.

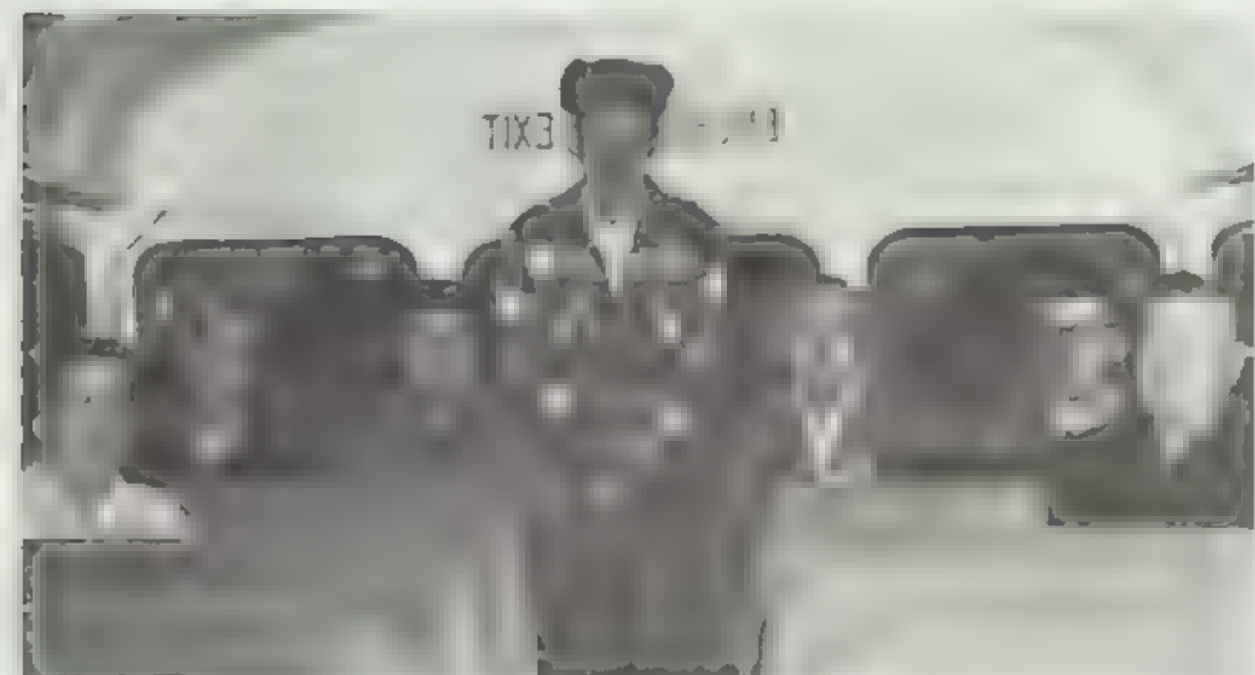

Although they are seldom given credit, our bus drivers are indispensable. Every day, rain or shine, they are presented with the task of delivering kids to school and home.

Dry weather and spring dust storms added to the duties of custodians this year. Despite this, they kept the school shining.

Delicious, nutritious meals for 500 people daily was the challenging job for the lunch room ladies. Edith Fankhouser was in her last year as leader of this group.

Clad appropriately in harem girl and caftan costumes, the sophomore servers seated guests, then served them a menu consisting of Roast of Water Buffalo (chicken fried steak), Oasis Potatoes (potato boats), and Flowering Cacti (tossed salad) along with Genie's Surprise (cherry cheesecake) for dessert. They were also responsible for the clearing of the tables and getting the banquet room set up for the prom.

BELOW: After contributing much to the success and beauty of the banquet, Mr. C. T. Hightower enjoyed a dance with S. Lyles.

LOWER CENTER: While K. Hoeme added the finishing touches to her painting, T. Bode and M. Honeman measured crepe paper for the ceiling.

BELOW: Sophomore servers A. Beer, M. Hairford, L. Lyles, M. Caldwell, S. Lyles, K. Kilgore, T. Grounds, Head Servers, T. Hoobler, and T. Thompson, R. Thompson, S. Baird, and R. Holland carried out the "Arabian Nights" theme in their costumes.

Seniors Feted In "Arabian Nights" Setting

BELOW S. Gibson and A. Meng were honored by being named the 1977 Prom King and Queen.

LOWER LEFT N. Decker, D. Hatson, L. Fowler, D. Goosen, M. Lundgrin, K. Witt, and K. Hoeme found T. Merritt's antics hilarious in their song presentation.

Desert sands, camels, and palm trees around an oasis accented this year's junior-senior banquet as guests enjoyed the beautiful "Arabian Night" from the protection of a desert tent. Junior class vice-president Jeff Sarchet served as emcee for the evening. A welcome by junior class president Kristal Hoeme was followed by senior class president Doug Dorsch's response. As a highlight of the evening, Arlen Meng and Susan Gibson were crowned Prom King and Queen. The dreaded class prophecies, read by Kay Witt and Rodney Hamm, turned out to be pleasant memories instead of nightmares. The junior ensemble was featured in two numbers, "Midnight at the Oasis" and "Theme from Mahogany."

Following the banquet, guests danced to music by Midnight Express.

BELOW- The juniors' hard work and effort resulted in a beautiful banquet and prom. LOWER RIGHT: T. Hofferber and K. Musman enjoyed a laugh together while G. Bowen and L. Hofferber waited for their dessert.

Seniors Faced Life Decisions

The long awaited day came for the seniors as they marched down the aisle for their commencement exercises. Rev. Don Gillett led the invocation after which Susanne Trent made her salutatory address. The flute trio consisting of Janie Brixey, Sue Hershey and Mary Ann Lundgrin then performed their contest song Minuet Antique. The valedictory was then given by Janell Reece. School board member, George Dysinger introduced Orin Shipp, the keynote speaker. Mr. Shipp gave an outstanding speech in which he reminded the seniors that the people that they should be the most thankful to were their parents. "Just a Bit of Sunshine" was sung by the entire senior class. Mr. Longest awarded the diplomas, then Superintendent Bill Goodwin pronounced the class as graduates from Hooker High School.

TOP LEFT: Rev. Don Chambers of the Hooker First Baptist Church delivered the baccalaureate address to the seniors of '77 on Sunday, May 15 in the high school auditorium.

TOP RIGHT: Speaker for commencement exercises was Orin Shipp, a 33rd degree Mason who has served Oklahoma as Grand Master. Mr. Shipp is currently serving as President of Shawnee's Board of Education.

Reflections Theme Carried Out By Staff

Fourteen staff members led by editor Kay Witt, along with sponsors Mrs. Burdge and Miss Koppitz strived together to make the '77 BLUEBOOK a success. They attended a workshop at PSU to help the new members learn the techniques of putting the BLUEBOOK together.

The staff sold ads and had a two-week sales campaign before the BLUEBOOK Jamboree, which is held each year to help keep the BLUEBOOK price down. Each member was assigned a booth for which he was responsible.

Planning layouts, cropping pictures, and writing copy required many extra hours after school in order for staff members to try to meet deadlines.

BOTTOM The '77 BLUEBOOK staff included: K. Pickard, K. Gibson, D. Thompson, N. Steinle, L. Lyles, C. Fischer, sponsors Lucille Burdge and Shelley Koppitz, S. Long, J. Steinke, A. Beer, J. Eggleston, K. Witt, and S.

Kathie
Even though it may not seem this way you do have a few good points about yourself. You're a great girl with an even greater personality.

Kathie,
well we fairly made it, I wonder how much of your annual I signed, I hope we have a Sr. year, and become close as a class. Stay cool and

SORRY!

Finally, there, huh?!!

Kathie,

To a really sweet girl
with a really cute personality.
Stay the way you are and you'll go far in life. I hope this year will be your best one and one that you'll remember for a long time. God bless you & be with you.

Kathie,
Well, I really don't wish to say this is our last year
I hope it will be a good year.
You are a really sweet girl. Good luck.
